Sahabat Multi Bintang Foundation Donated Mineral Water and Portable Toilets for Refugees of Mount Agung

Humanitarian Program #BintangBersamaBali

KARANGASEM, December 08th 2017 – Through humanitarian program #BintangBersamaBali, Sahabat Multi Bintang Foundation donated 180 million liters of mineral water in 1.500ml packs of 120,000 bottles and 8 units of portable toilets for refugees of Mount Agung. This humanitarian action is part of Sahabat Multi Bintang Foundation's commitment in the context of disaster relief in Indonesia.

"The donation initiative is being undertaken as Multi Bintang's effort to help the provision of drinking water supply and toilet facilities for refugees of Mount Agung eruption," said Chairman of Sahabat Multi Bintang Foundation Bambang Britono (08/12). The mineral water and portable toilets are handed over to Mount Agung Disaster Relief Services Committee, which is the center for receiving assistance from Bali Disaster Management Agency (BPBD). Furthermore, the donation will be distributed to refugee shelters.

Mineral water supply is a major requirement for the refugees in fulfilling their primary needs, in addition to food and other necessities. This need is one of the utmost important to be fulfilled in anticipation of eruption of Mount Agung which is now at Warning level.

Sahabat Multi Bintang Foundation is a foundation established by PT Multi Bintang Indonesia (Persero) Tbk and focuses on three pillars consists of food technology, environmental conservation, and entrepreneurship.

"Hopefully, the assistance provided by Sahabat Multi Bintang Foundation is able to maintain drinking water supply and toilet facilities for the refugees," Bambang concluded.
